Coca-Cola's PILSENER BEER

A detailed illustration of a tall, slender beer bottle. The label features the words "Pilsener Beer" in a stylized font, with "Coca-Cola's" written above it. The bottle is shown with a textured surface, possibly representing condensation or a specific glass type. The label also includes some smaller text and a logo at the bottom, which appears to be the Coca-Cola script logo. The bottle is positioned on the right side of the advertisement, next to the main text.

WE ALWAYS BEEN ASKED why we never had a beer that could be sold for 10c. Our answer was that up till now, we were still searching for a better beer that could be offered to flavor-wise drinkers at this price.

... we are happy to announce to everyone who knows the enjoyment of a finer beer that Kling's Pilsner is the answer to that question.

KLING'S Pilsner Beer is a golden, full-bodied beverage that comes from America's oldest brewery.
